Jonathan Edwards

with Special Guest Alastair Moock
Saturday, March 8th at 8 p.m.

Tickets: $20 advance/$23 day of show

After celebrating 30 years of "Sunshine" with a "First Annual Farewell Tour" with Kenny White on piano in 2001, Jonathan Edwards still tours occasionally, but selectively. We are very honored and pleased to be able to welcome this legendary folk/rocker back to Peterborough this season. A Jonathan Edwards' show covers nearly 40 years of music history and a wide spectrum of genres: 1960s rock, country, bluegrass, and folk. He has collaborated with artists like Emmylou Harris (Rockin' Chair & Sailboat), Wendy Waldman (Natural Thing), Maura O'Connell, Jimmy Buffet, Cheryl Wheeler (Driving Home), and Christine Lavin. Jonathan's career has included theatre, commercials, record production, the Cruising America's Waterways series for PBS, and movie soundtracks, including "Sunshine" in the 2004 Will Ferrell film "Anchorman." Come welcome him back!

There was a time in America when folk music was relevant, edgy, even dangerous—a tool of personal and political expression, at once raw and beautiful. That spirit lives on in the music of Alastair Moock. Moock's writing style is often compared to those of John Prine and Woody Guthrie. Like them, he tends to stick to simpler harmonic forms and tight rhyming patterns that emphasize his lyrical dexterity and natural talent for storytelling.
